I am applying for library membership. I have read the library rules and I agree to the rules. If I fail to follow the rules and the books or CDs issued on my card are damaged or not returned in time by me, I will reimburse for the damage, buy a new or pay the price for the same as decided by the librarian/board members. I will also pay the decided penalty and postal charges of notice for any delay in returning the books/CDs in time. The librarian/board members will have a right to collect the same expense from my deposit. After the completion of membership tenure, if I do not remain as a member for the next two years and do not collect my deposit back, the library cantake the same amount of my deposit as a donation.
